The Copernican Shift

Welcome to Faith Lutheran Church!

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

Announcements and Welcome

Opening Hymn

Built on the Rock — LSB 645 (v. 1-3, 5)

Invocation

Apostles' Creed

Confession and Absolution

Please hear my confession, O God. I, a poor sinner, plead guilty before You of all sins. I have lived as if You did not matter and as if I mattered most. Your name I have not honored as I should; my worship and prayers have faltered. I have not let Your love have its way with me, and so my love for others has failed. There are those whom I have hurt, and those whom I have failed to help. My thoughts and desires have been spoiled with sin. Forgive my sin, O God, for the sake of Your Son, our Savior, Jesus.

Postlude

THE COPERNICAN SHIFT

The shift from Ptolemy → Copernicus.

“WHERE did this [food] come from?”

- Jesus created EX NIHLO—‘from nothing’.

The boy is willing to SHARE his lunch

- Most were AFRAID to TRUST Jesus with what they had.
- What we HAVE is what He ASKS for.

TWELVE basketsful left over. Why?

- “We can’t DO ANYTHING.” Jesus says, “I WILL”.

Focus on the SON!

Read and Reflect:

1. Psalm 24:1, “What have you forgotten is a gift from God’s very hand?”
2. Jeremiah 23:4, “How is this like our church?”
3. Psalm 23:4, “How does this contribute to the Copernican shift ?”
4. Ephesians 2:14, “What is this wall Paul speaks of?”
5. John 6:13, “What is in your basket? Be thankful!”
6. John 6:48-51, “How is this Bread also miraculously provided?”

Ephesians 2:13 – “But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.” What all of mankind's efforts, works, and scheming could not do, the blood of Christ did. We have peace with God, and we are brought near to the Father. This life-giving sacrifice of Christ sets the pattern for the sacrifices we are called to make for others within our vocations in home, church, and society.
